- COUNTESS : The Return of the Horned One LP (2016), New Era, corner bumped, 11,90€
- CRAFT : White Noise And Black Metal LP (2018), red or black vinyl available, well, until further notice FtU will remain my favourite, but the new album grows on me from spin to spin, worth to check it out I think. At the same time be aware: Season of Mist have done an extremely poor, and at the same time a very money-oriented job here: You have to expect a flimsy standard cover, standard gram vinyl (if I am right), no download code, no poster or the like, but they sold it really expensive to dealers, so, 23,90€ the result, sorry guys. Reduced price for regular customers!
- CRYFEMAL : D6s6nti6rro LP (2016), Osmose, limited 300, 14,90€

- SHINING : IX - Everyone, Everything, Everywhere, Ends 2-LP, black or red vinyl, 20 and 22€

- SHORES OF LADON : Eindringling LP (2014), Eternity Records, hmmm, not bad exactly, but at the same time not as strong as the Lupercal vinyl – at least in my opinion. However, worth a try, 300 copies, 12,90€
- SHORES OF LADON : Lupercal LP (2013), Eternity Records, really great vinyl version of the MCD here with bonus track (Azaghal's Mustamaa [or Mordor, if you like]) and a playing time of 25+ minutes, great traditional Black Metal, alone the songs on side A make this an essential add to your collection, highly recommended!!! 300 copies pressed, 18,90€
- SKYFORGER : Senprüsija LP (2018), Folter Records, different colours available, chosen randomly, 16,90€
- SLAGMAUR : Thill Smitts Terror LP (2017), Osmose, 500 copies in gatefold cover, quite recommended as it is a strong, maybe even their best album, sick sick sick, 17,90€ (only distractor: there are strange elements on the back of the cover such as adult classification and marketing bullshit)
- SLAGMAUR : Von Rov Shelter LP (2009), Osmose Productions, 14,50€
- SOL SISTERE - Unfading Incorporeal Vacuum LP (2016), Hammerheart, killer artwork, strong stuff, 13,90€
